

Winter 2021

IN THIS ISSUE

- 219 Air-Britain Affairs
- 220 Saga of Hawker “N818LD”
- 226 Airbus A320
- 230 Fairey ‘Provost’
- 233 RAF Vampires Part 2
- 236 Caribbean One-Elevens
- 238 KZ Legacy
- 243 Malay Ménage à Trois
- 245 Republic Aviation Part 6
- 250 Readers’ Photos
- 256 RAF Crash Sites 1944/45
- 258 Meeting des Nations
- 261 Buccaneer Cabriolet
- 262 Grand Day Out at Abbotsinch
- 264 John Francis: BEA Pilot
- 268 Nordic ‘Wooden Wonder’
- 270 AB-IX Report
- 271 JATO for Helicopters
- 272 BSAA: The Star Fades
- 274 General Aviation News
- 275 Mondial ULM 2021
- 276 LAA Rally 2021
- 277 Beech Party
- 278 History of Pan Am Part 1
- 283 The First Air-Britain Noël
- 284 RFC Graves in Norfolk
- 286 Bookshelf
- 287 Who’s Who in Air-Britain
- 288 Airplanes & Coffee

THE AVIATION WORLD EDITORIAL TEAM

- Editor: Paul Jackson
Paul.Jackson@Air-Britain.com
- Deputy Editor: Rod Simpson
Rod.Simpson@Air-Britain.com
- Assistant Editors: Steve Mitchell
Steve.Mitchell@Air-Britain.com
- Graham Salt
Graham.Salt@Air-Britain.com
- Military Editor: Steve Bond
Steve.Bond@Air-Britain.com
- Civil Editor: Robert Swan
Robert.Swan@Air-Britain.com

Cover Picture: The prototype A320 (F-WWAI) flew 35 years ago this February, patriarch of a family subsequently also embracing the A318, A319 and A321. As Bernard Gloux relates, beginning on page 226, the path to today’s seemingly effortless success was paved with failures, false starts and frustrations (Airbus SAS)

PAGE 220

PAGE 230

PAGE 238

PAGE 258

PAGE 264

PAGE 274

PAGE 278